FFT Attendance Tracker – What is it?

A weekly report that allows schools to:

- Compare their current, live attendance to other schools across the country
- Drill down into year groups and pupil groups for 'like for like' comparisons
- Focus on individual pupils' attendance
- Track trends in whole school, group and pupil attendance over the year
- Assess the impact of Covid on the school, groups, and individual pupils

FFT Attendance Tracker – Latest Numbers

New for 2021/22

- Cumulative, year to date figures across all reports
- Ability to view data at a glance across a half-term
- Fully interactive charts throughout showing like for like comparisons
- Updated whole school and year groups Covid Impact report with national Covid lines
- Option to group pupils by the attendance band they are in
- Improved and increased range of download options, including Excel
- Fully reflective of the DFE's new attendance codes

Securing good attendance and tackling persistent absence

Published 7 February 2022

The role of governors

How well those responsible for governance consider attendance practices and challenge attendance figures varies widely. It is not uncommon for governors to look only at the overall attendance figure for a school to consider where this sits in relation to national averages. But that figure can disguise variations in the attendance of groups
